

The Crescent.

Official Paper of the City and County.

APPLETON, OCT. 3.

Democratic State Ticket.

For Governor,

Henry L. Palmer.

For Lieutenant Governor,

NELSON DEWEY.

For Secretary of State,

EMIL ROTHE.

For Treasurer,

CHARLES S. BENTON.

For Attorney General,

E. WAKELY.

For State Comptroller,

H. S. PIERPONT.

For State Prison Commissioner,

J. R. BOHAN.

For School Superintendent,

VOLNEY FRENCH.

For Member of Assembly,

GEORGE KREISS.

For Register of Deeds,

P. H. O'BRIEN.

For County Superintendent,

CORNELIUS DRISCOLL.

For Supervisor, District No. 1,

W. H. P. BOGAN.

For Supervisor, District No. 2,

ROBERT B. DOYLE.

For State Senator—22d District,

T. R. HUDD.

It is with feelings of mingled pride and pleasure that we thus announce the re-nomination of "Our Young Man Eloquent," Hon. T. R. Hudd, for Senator of this (the 22d) district. He was chosen by acclamation, which speaks volumes in his favor. By his close application to the public welfare, in his official character, Senator Hudd has won laurels worth a life time of devotion. He has labored early and late for his constituents, who appreciate his manly efforts. As a literary or professional man, Mr. Hudd has few, if any, competitors in Northern Wisconsin. Now boys, off coats and at em! Let no opportunity be neglected to give him a rousing majority.

"Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty!"

Democratic County Ticket.

Under our appropriate head will be found the nominees of the Democratic Convention. The convention, which placed these gentlemen in nomination was a very full one, but one town (Bo-ovina) being unrepresented. And although there was considerable strife among the friends of the several candidates, yet the proceedings were conducted in the most orderly manner.

We will frankly state that the nominees for Assembly was not our individual choice, yet he received a majority of the votes cast and it appears to us that a comparison between him and his opponent, Mr. Werner, will result in leaving the latter gentlemen "out in the wet." Of course Mr. Kreiss will be elected.

Our present Register of Deeds was re-nominated by a most flattering vote.

He has given the best of satisfaction in his official capacity—is industrious, gentlemanly, and minds his own business. His election is conceded on all hands.

The city having no voice in the nomination or election of a County Superintendent, the other delegations nominated Mr. C. Driscoll, a young man—a student of Lawrence University.

By unremitting labor and the exercise of a discriminating judgment he will be able to fill that important and responsible position with honor to himself and satisfaction to his friends.

Our Schools are but in their infancy yet, and the proper shaping of them now will tell in future years. Mr.

Driscoll's majority will be very large.

Two of the Supervisor Districts made nominations—Nos. 1 and 3. No.

2 will nominate to-day (Saturday).

No. 1 re-nominated the present incumbent, Mr. Bogan. He has had experience in our County affairs as his friends concluded to keep him on the Board.

No. 3, nominated Mr. R. B. Doyle, of Kaukauna. He is a man of education and ability, and we doubt not will make a good member of the Board.

A sufficient time will be had before election to have the different towns thoroughly canvassed, and every voter brought out. We have at least 700

Democratic majority in this county if the voters will come out.

LINCOLNIA.

The Motor (which, by the way, is always compelled to go beyond its own resources for thunder), quotes the Madison Journal, (the most notorious falsifier in the West) to prove that Mr.

Lincoln did not favor a compromise in his Inaugural Address. Let our readers may have forgotten precisely what he did say, touching that subject, we make the following extract from said document:

"Suppose you go to war, you cannot fight cheaply and when, after much loss on both sides, and no gain on either, you cease fighting, the identical question of TERMS OF INTERCOURSE 'ARE AGAIN

UPON YOU."

The Motor and State Journal will find this at the latter portion of the 9th paragraph of the Inaugural! In his

"key-note" letter to the Springfield Meeting, Old Abe said, "compromise was impossible!" Such is Republican consistency!

While we are upon this subject, we would advise every man in the Country to procure a copy of Mr. Lincoln's Inaugural and read it—read it carefully —and you will perceive how easy it is for Abolitionists to perjure themselves, before their Country and their God!

Here are one or two extracts, given verbatim:

"I have no purpose, directly or indirectly, to interfere with the institution of slavery in the States where it exists.

I believe I have no lawful merit to do so, and I have no inclination to do so."

Did the President tell the truth then, or did he not? How does the Emancipation Proclamation agree with the foregoing declaration? Which time did Old Abe falsify?

Here are two nuts to crack, from the same "all-wise" authority:

"The property, peace, and security of no section are to be in any wise endangered by the now incoming administration."

"All profess to be content in the Union if all Constitutional rights can be maintained. Is it true, then, that any right, plainly written in the Constitution, has been denied? I think not. Happily the human mind is so constituted that no party can reach to the autocracy of doing this."

And, then, here are Abe's ideas, from the same article, telling when we can revolutionize. It is particularly appropriate to the present period:

"Think, if you can, of a single instance in which a plainly written provision of the Constitution has ever been denied. If, by the mere force of numbers, a majority should deprive a minority of any clearly-written constitutional right, it might, in a moral point of view, justify revolution; it certainly would, if such were a vital one."

Did the Administration not "deny?"

Dr. Olds, Mahoney, Vallandigham, and others, the right to a trial by a jury of their own citizens? Did not the Administration proclaim all the slaves of those in rebellion to be free, even in the face of its own assertion that it had "no lawful right to do so"? Was not the Conscription Act an illegal and unconstitutional measure? Was the "bayonet election" in Kentucky constitutional?

On the same—Doolittle's chin of the amalgamation State Com., announces that Senator Howe is to be trotted out to make stump speeches to "strengthen our side." Wonder if he can't make arrangements to come into this county and inform our people how magnificently he swindled us out of our Superior road, and as to his honorable assistance in Congress in changing the route of our Railroad? If our citizens feel now as they did when these outrages were perpetrated, by the assistance of the honorable Senator, he would meet with a very cool reception.

Please inform us, Mr. Rublee, if you intend to send him out here!

Col. Heg Dead.—Col. Heg, formerly State Prison Commissioner, and who was Col. of the 15th Wis., was wounded in the battle under Rosecrans and died the next day. Col. Heg's death will be mourned by the people of Wisconsin. He resigned his commissionership to join the army, in which he was a faithful officer, and true to the country of his adoption. Honored be his memory!

BRAND THE FAISIFIER.—The Oshkosh Northwestern denies that President Lincoln asserted, in his "key-note" letter, that the "maintenance of the Union by compromise was impossible." It (the Northwestern) says:

"Verily the Crescent is hard run for material out of which to frame an indictament against the President."

What the President did say, verbatim et literatim, was this:

"I do not believe that any compromise embracing the maintenance of the Union is now possible."

This is the precise language used, and the same can be found in Harper's Monthly for October, page 707! Will the Northwestern please make this correction, or will it continue to rob Satan of his laurels? We brand that paper with intention to falsify, either igno-rantly or criminally!

GRAND DEMOCRATIC RALLY.—There will be a Monster Mass Meeting of the Democracy, for this section of the State, at Menasha, on the 15th of this present month. Hon. H. L. Palmer, E. G. Ryan, Judge Wakely, Senator

Rodolf, Emil Rothe, Judge Orton, and other distinguished speakers will be present. Ontagamie must be represented one thousand strong!—

Further particulars next week.

During Gen. Curtis' administration at Helena, Ark., eight thousand contributors have died.
